

The Austrian company you work for has decided to offer internships to students from abroad. The management wants to give them some information before they apply and has decided to post a leaflet in English on the company's website for download. You have been asked to write the text for the leaflet.

In your leaflet you should:

- specify what the company you work for expects from interns
- outline what future interns should consider before coming to Austria
- give information about the support the company offers to interns

Divide your leaflet into sections and give them headings. Write around 250 words.
